

Request for Expressions of Interest Provision of Quantity Surveying Services

Background:

To tackle the recovery and development of the BVI the Government has established a specialist statutory body, the Recovery and Development Agency (RDA), to provide the expertise and capability to deliver the Government's Recovery to Development Plan (RDP). The RDA is focused on planning the longer-term transformative and strategic change projects at the same time as implementing a portfolio of urgent projects to have immediate impact on tourism, support to vulnerable persons and improved public service delivery.

In the aftermath of 2017 disasters, 36% of the housing stock has been significantly damaged and a further 14% deemed uninhabitable. The recovery of the housing sector is critical to the Territory's recovery and the resilience of its population.

The outcome of this technical assistance project will be to provide technical support to the planning team for the delivery of a project to repair 30 homes in the BVI.

The specific objectives of the assignment include but is not limited to:

- Develop statements of requirement in collaboration with Government departments.
- Undertake detailed project planning and produce Scope of Works.
- Track and monitor project progress throughout the planning phases.
- Capture and monitor project risks.

The RDA now invites suitable qualified firms to indicate their interest in providing quantity surveying services. Interested firms must provide information to demonstrate that they have the capacity, qualifications and experience to undertake the assignment.

Interested eligible firms may request a copy of the Terms of Reference by sending an e-mail to: procurement@bvirecovery.vg
